Seminole County.

At the time of the ownership transfer in 1996, we were concentrating on smaller projects. In the past eight years our business has quadrupled, with projections far exceeding our younger days.

Today, McKee Construction Co. celebrates more than three decades of service to the Seminole County Sanford Community.

Steve Esler, vice president of the company, joined McKee Construction in 1996.

With a bachelor's degree in business, and a strong background in the design and construction of metal buildings, together with the knowledge and expertise in construction, he is a 30-year veteran in the construction industry.

His commitment to McKee Construction Co., as well as the community, is a strong one. He will participate in the 2004 Citizens' Academy for the Seminole County government.

Under the guidance and leadership of VonHerbulis and Esler, McKee Construction Co. will continue to thrive and grow. The Company's motto, "We Structure Our Business to Build Yours," is taken seriously at McKee.

They pay close attention to detail, go the extra mile and their follow-through is the key to their continued success. Their repetitive customer base is strong and forever growing, and is well respected within the company.
